

RIGHT EARFUL
What's wrong with the country?
Just one thing we see,
We need a golfing champion
Who's never been a caddy.

LEFT EARFUL
He broke out in a fever,
Wishing he could die,
An outcast in the face of man—
His golf ball teed too high.

Normal Plays Wesleyan Reserves Here Tomorrow

PUNTS AND PASSES

By LARRY.

Hoot, Mon!
No order that the members of the West Virginia University football team won't have to spend very much time in Cincinnati listening to the conversations of the Ohio Dutch, Adam Stansbury, asked by Dr. C. W. Spears, has arranged to take the well known warriors out of Morgantown at 5:14 Friday evening on a special Pullman. They will come to Fairmont, the seat of culture and refinement, where their car will be hitched to the Wheeling "flyer" on the B. & O. The squad will arrive in Wheeling at 8:55 p. m., and will be switched on to the 10:45 train from Pittsburgh to Cincinnati, arriving there early in the morning. Coming back they will leave Cincinnati on No. 2 at 9:20 p. m. Saturday, arriving in Clarksburg the next morning at 6:20. They will breakfast at the Waldo Hotel, take a trolley for Fairmont, and catch the 10:10 for Morgantown. The new plan will enable Spears to give his men all the regulation practice sessions this week. I think it is a good idea. For the Indians trip, the boys will leave Thursday evening and will arrive in Indianapolis Friday morning, and will go to Bloomington late that afternoon.

Some Team.

Charlie Hodges, writing in the Morgantown New Dominion, says: "Jim Marks says the Kiski prep school team, which is to meet Coach Ward Lannan's freshmen here next Saturday, is the best outfit he has ever tutored in football at the Salisbury prep school, barring none. Jim has been turning out prep players for several years and when one considers that he once had a team with Red Hastings, Jimmy DeHart and Scrubby McCraith on it to say nothing of half a dozen other college stars, his remarks assume unusual force."

"But Jim has more than this statement to back it up. Earlier in the present season, Kiski went to State College and beat the Penn State freshmen 31 to 0 on the latter's own field. That in itself is something to think about. Any team that beats any Penn State organization, even checkers or tiddie-de-winks, on Penn State's field by a score of 30 points has some quality. But that down. The weakest team State ever puts out isn't over very weak compared to most schools."

"On top of this, we recall that the Mountaineer plies took the count at Penn State last week at the hands of this same team by a score of 21 to 0. On pure dope, that makes Kiski 52 points better than our plies."

"Well, they aren't that much better by a whole lot. They may win from the local crew here Saturday but we'll wager the typewriter it isn't by any such margin or anywhere near it. Our Cubs will battle the visitors in a way that will make them remember the engagement and if the locals lose, it will be with colors flying."

"But just the same, we can't help but feel that Jim Marks isn't exaggerating when he says this is the best Kiski team he has ever coached."

"Pop" to Stay?

The Pittsburgh Sun says: "Pop Warner, after all, is going to stay as coach at the University of Pittsburgh for one more year, and will continue to direct the Panthers on the gridiron in 1933, instead of dropping out after the present season, as indications pointed. That is the conclusion that may be safely drawn after reading the story that came out of Easton, Pa., last night, in which it was stated that Lafayette College desires to retain Jock Sutherland as coach for next year and that Sutherland in all probability will accept the proposition inasmuch as 'for several reasons' the Lafayette berth looks more attractive to him than the one at Pittsburgh. As Pitt is not tampering with coaches who desire to work somewhere else or who have contract obligations with other colleges, it is safe to say the Panther authorities will prefer to let their contract with Warner, which extends to the end of 1933, run its full course, and that no attempt will be made to get Sutherland here next year. It was rumored that but for the fact that Sutherland and other desirable coaches were already tied up when it became known that Warner had signed with Stanford for 1934, Pop would have been permitted to terminate his contract here at once and another coach would have been placed in charge for the present season. It was considered more than likely that such a plan would be carried out in 1933, but the latest Sutherland story from Easton indicates that under the new conditions there will be no change in coaches at Pitt next year and that Warner will stay for one more season."

Just to Argue.

Iowa defeated Yale by a score of 6 to 0. Iowa defeated Illinois by a score of 8 to 7 and Michigan beat Illinois 24 to 0. Those who insist on measuring the calibre of football eleven on the basis of comparative scores are handed the information if it has not already occurred to them, which it probably has.

No chain is stronger than its weakest link, and no team is stronger than its substitutes. That has been written previously but last Saturday Michigan started and finished against Illinois with two substitutes in her backfield and in the Wolverine line were three players working at new positions. Michigan has able substitutes. When the coaching staff decided to keep Harry Kipke out of the lineup and save him for Wisconsin and Minnesota, Bob Knode was sent into Kipke's place. Knode is a substitute quarterback. Kiefer was the logical choice, but Kiefer is not a kicker and Yost had to have a kicker, so he used Knode, a player who punts with his left foot. He outpunted the Illinois kickers on an average of ten yards per kick.

Sieger worked in Roby's place. On attack Sieger is still inexperienced, and there are several tricks he must learn, but on defense he is a remarkable player. On attack Sieger is prone to lose his interference and falls to pick holes. These faults are due more to lack of "major" experience.

Ready for Game

PHILIPPI, Nov. 2.—The football fans of Randolph and Barbour counties are anxiously awaiting the kickoff for the game between Davis and Elkins and Broadus at three o'clock. There is to be a preliminary between Elkins and Philippi high school teams at one o'clock. But this game does not interest the fans, for they concede the game to Elkins by a large score.

The Elkins' management has completed arrangements for a special train, and it will arrive tomorrow at noon. The train will bring the followers of the college and high school teams of the Senator town.

The probable outcome of the College game is very much in doubt, as it should be. Each college has its backers, and they are staying with their teams to the last minute from all indications. Manager Armstrong, of D. and E. gave out their lineup this afternoon. Latta, of Broadus would not announce a definite lineup, but stated that he would likely start the game with three changes from the lineups of previously games.

Resume Relations

Many local fans will be interested to know that Pitt and Carnegie Tech are to resume football relations in 1933. A two-year agreement has been entered into between Carnegie Tech and the University of Pittsburgh for football games in 1933 and 1934, both games to be played at Forbes field. Relations were broken off between the two schools in 1931 following the football game between the two schools that year, which Pitt won 17 to 7, after Tech had gained an early advantage. It is likely that the game next fall will be played on October 27, taking the place of the Bucknell game of this year. Pitt will play Bucknell at Lewisburg in the opening contest of the 1933 season. It is said that Pitt and Tech will also resume basketball, baseball and track relations. This is as it should be. The two big Pittsburgh institutions should meet in all lines of sport. Tech has earned a well deserved high place in the field of athletic endeavor and is on a par with her neighbor in Schuylkill in all respects. The Tech-Pitt game will attract one of the largest football crowds of the next season in Pittsburgh.

About Right

A fellow out in the west made the statement the other day that Nebraska has the greatest football machine in the country and that the Cornhuskers could whip Harvard, Princeton and Centre on successive days. That's covering a lot of territory, but they sure have the material and a good coach at Nebraska, in Dawson. Harry Keck, writer in the Pittsburgh Gazette-Times says:

"Dawson's case reminds us greatly of the situation at Pitt. Glenn Warner went four years straight without losing a game while his material was of the best and he had players as good as his present first-string men sitting on the bench. When the material went back from the exceptional to the ordinary, Warner began to encounter his ups and downs, the same as any other coach. To carry the illustration along a little further, Gilmour Doble, who went eight years without losing a game out in the state of Washington, before he came East to become the coach at Navy, had his troubles getting started in his new locality. He drifted from Navy to Cornell and the first year at Ithaca found things badly demoralized. That

(Continued on page nine)

PARKIN RATED FOOTBALL STAR

Iowa Youngster Shows Real Class in Battle at Yale Bowl.

By BILLY EVANS

What do the eastern experts think of Iowa, the conqueror of Yale?

Recently I put such a question to one of football's leading authorities.

This expert attended the Yale-Iowa game as a scout. He was there for two purposes, to scout both Yale and Iowa. It happens that one of the western teams to play Iowa is coached by a personal friend and he was there to pass on his impressions to said friend.

First I asked him what he thought of Lockie, who I regarded as one of the best fullbacks the west has developed in years.

Lockie fumbled badly. "Lockie has a lot of drive and determination, but against Yale he spoiled his efforts by fumbling after being tackled," he said. "In a measure this fault may be attributed to the terrific tackling of Mallory, the Yale back, who is undoubtedly one of the greatest defensive backs of modern football."

Defensively, Lockie played a great game, offensively he was a bit of a disappointment.

A year ago I had sung the praises of Aubrey Devine to the eastern expert. I was much interested in getting his impression of Leland Parkin, successor to Devine at Iowa.

"Prior to the Yale-Iowa game a number of people told me that while Parkin was a good quarter he was not a patch on Aubrey Devine. All I have to say is that Devine was any better than that. Parkin who played against Yale must have been nothing short of supernatural."

Parkin Rated Real Star.

"I have also been informed that Parkin is a sophomore and the contest with Yale was his first big game. If this was his first big game, then I must predict that Parkin is one of the even wonders of the world. If Parkin could only be used as a punter and using this attribute as a threat, he could easily be classed as one of the greatest football players of the present generation."

"One of the very few criticisms that I could offer against Iowa's play was the punting. The criticism I desire to make is merely against the style of punting. Mimmick, the Iowa guard who did the kicking, had plenty of distance in his boots, but his kicks were far too low. In fact, so low that his ends were not able to cover his kicks in true football fashion. This fault allowed Yale's defensive backs to run back most every kick 60 per cent farther than they should have under other circumstances."

Iowa Was Well Coached.

"Iowa was well coached in the fundamentals, Yale was in better shape physically. Iowa tired badly in the third and fourth periods.

"While the formation of Iowa bewildered Yale for some time, I personally feel that any team with two high-class tackles and a couple of good ends could stop Iowa's formations any time. The dope I am sending west on Iowa should make it a bit harder for the 'Big Ten' champions."

There you have, the dope from an eastern football authority who, to my way of thinking, has few, if any, superiors in a working knowledge of football. Because of his connections both as coach and official I do not feel that I can in justice to him use his name in connection with the interview.

The outcome of the Illinois game in which Iowa had a tough time winning 8 to 7, after being outplayed during the greater part of the game, made me think that possibly the eastern expert had passed the dope along to Coach Zupke of Illinois.

BRITTON LOSES IN BRILLIANT BATTLE

Mickey Walker Wins Welterweight Championship After Hard Fight.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—A grinning, towne-headed fellow from Elizabeth, N. J., is welterweight boxing champion of the world today because he had absolutely no respect for old age, wisdom and cunning when he ran athwart them at Madison Square Garden last night. He signs his checks Michael Edward Walker, but the boys call him Mickey and his appearance doesn't belie the aptness of the moniker.

Mickey Walker in the new champion and Jack Britton, the sage of the ring, is again an ex-champion. But Jack held the title for nearly a decade.

The battle last night will stand out in the annals of boxing and in the memories of those who saw it as the most interesting of the time. Almost unprecedented was the action of the State Boxing Commission in announcing before the contest started that "all bets are off." Chairman Muldoon of the commission became worried when he learned before the bout started that odds had changed within a few hours from 6 to 5 on Britton to 3 to 5 on Walker and he had the announcement made without further explanation.

The fight was a rattling affair from the first gong, and when the fifteenth round came and the battered champion was still on his feet the crowd rallied to the cry of "Joe Humphries," the veteran announcer, and gave three cheers to what Joe called "the best champion who ever lost his title in this arena."

Britton went to the floor nearly half a dozen times, the gong saving him once.

Britton's chief stock last night was courage and craftiness.

STARS MAY HAVE HARD FIGHT NOW

Mahrt and Davis on Second String—Like Back on Varsity Soon.

MORGANTOWN, Nov. 2.—It is going to take more than a little effort on the part of Carl Davis and Armin Mahrt to regain the Varsity berths they lost when they were injured in the W. & L. game at Charleston on October 21. After being out of uniform for a week both reported to Coach Spears last Monday afternoon and he immediately ordered them to report to Coaches Rodgers and Kay, who have charge of the scrub squad. He explained to them that the demotion was made in order that they may learn new plays taught to the squad last week during their absence.

While Mahrt and Davis were on the hospital list, Charley Howard, Pete Barnum, "Hefty" DeVaughn and several other youngsters came forward to fill the breach. Their work against Rutgers was of such high calibre that Coach Spears does not feel disposed to put them aside so soon again. In order to regain their places Davis and Mahrt will have to prove again that they are better fitted for a regular berth than any other candidates.

With Martin again on the bench as a result of injuries Mahrt stands a good chance of breaking into the backfield alongside of Eckberg, Simon and Nardacci. He is a formidable opponent, however, in Barnum who is rapidly developing into a "triple threat." Since none of the other backs are competent punters and Mahrt has shown little talent along that line Barnum may get the assignment over his flashy rival. Doctor Spears realizes that a punter is a very valuable asset and since Barnum is his best bet, with the possible exception of Martin, he is likely to use the Parkersburg boy in preference to Mahrt. Charley Howard is determined to hold on to the tackle post he earned after Davis was hurt and the Charleston boy is likely to meet with all kinds of trouble in his fight to get his old place back. The fights being staged by these two ex-regulars is one of the interesting features of the preparation being made for next Saturday's game with Cincinnati.

Pratt says that he understands the deal to take him to Detroit has been completed. He is delighted with the opportunity to get with a team up in the race. While he hasn't been officially notified of the chance he says that he has

Pratt feels that the Tigers have a corking good team and a great chance to win. That, of course, is the one big reason he is so pleased with the trade. He rightly rates Blue as a wonder at first, says Rigney is the coming shortstop of the American League, figures Jones as good as any third baseman in the league and hopes to round out the infield by performing capably at second.

Incidentally Pratt figures that Rip Collins, who is to go to Detroit in the deal, will be a great pitcher for Cobb. With a team that will get him a working margin of runs Collins, opines Pratt, is going to be a mighty hard man to beat in 1933.

JOINS CENTRE STAFF

DANVILLE, Ky., James Kendrick, who played end and half back for Texas A. & M. when "Uncle Charlie" Moran was mentor of that institution's eleven was expected to arrive today, and take his place as the latest addition to the coaching staff of the Centre College Colonels. Kendrick was all-South-Western end for three years and has been with a professional eleven.

We Clean Rugs

—not cheaper but better

Heinze & Co.

Phone 1200-1201

Billy Evans Says

The football germ gets into the system of many a major league ball player in the fall. I bumped into a number of big leaguers at the State-Michigan game.

Among them was Del Pratt with the Boston Red Sox last year and Ray Fisher, former star pitcher with the New York Americans and Cincinnati Reds.

Fisher is now baseball coach at University of Michigan and spends about nine months of the year at Ann Arbor. The rest of the time he says the salary he can make at both is far in advance of what he received during most of his major league career.

The position now held by Fisher was originally tendered to Pratt and accepted by him. When he was transferred from New York to Boston he signed a two-year contract to coach baseball at Michigan and announced his retirement from the professional game.

Boston then came through with such a big offer that Pratt induced the Michigan people to permit him to resign and accept it. Fisher succeeded him and had an excellent success. Pratt is in the sporting goods business in Ann Arbor and making good. Incidentally he helps a bit in the football coaching. In his college days Pratt was a wonder on the gridiron.

Pratt says that he understands the deal to take him to Detroit has been completed. He is delighted with the opportunity to get with a team up in the race. While he hasn't been officially notified of the chance he says that he has

50,000 Stitches

Are Required To Build One UNITED WOOLEN Suit

A coat contains about . 35,000 stitches
A vest about . 6,000 stitches
A pair of trousers about 9,000 stitches

Many of these stitches are sewn in with strong thread, by skilled hands, specialists in their particular operation, so that the garment may hold its shape and giving it durability and strength.

The electric goose also plays its part in producing the sartorial form.

Our modern specialized system of tailoring compares with the old "Jur" method of production as the ten-ton truck compares with the ox cart.

All of which makes UNITED WOOLEN CLOTHES beautiful as well as durable.

THE UNITED WOOLEN MILLS CO.

Maxerach, President

ALL SUITS 2 ALL OVERCOATS $24 $28 $32

MADE TO ORDER

Adams St. at S. S. Bridge

Stores also in Clarksburg, Parkersburg, Wheeling, Huntington, Charleston and Bluefield, W. Va.; Marietta, Zanesville, Cambridge, Steubenville, Portsmouth, Springfield, Dayton, Lima, Hamilton, Columbus and Cincinnati, O.; Ashland, Ky.; Pittsburgh, Pa. and Marion, Ohio.

BIG CROWD TO SEE NORMAL IN SPEEDY BATTLE

Iceemen Will Play Grafton Saturday Afternoon at Ball Park.

By LARRY.

Sandy Toothman and his Fairmont State Normal School warriors will be the attraction at South Side Park tomorrow afternoon when they will play the Wesleyan Reserves in a game that is expected to be well worth watching. Toothman's tribe is in good shape for the contest and expects to win. It is to be hoped that a good crowd will be on hand for the battle. The Normal has had some hard sledding this season, but the boys have played good football and deserve the support of the fans. It is only right that the rosters go out and give the boys a lift tomorrow.

Frank Ice is putting his Fairmont High School lads through some hard workouts for the game with Grafton Saturday. Yesterday they had a long scrimmage with the Normal team, and showed up pretty well. Ice is working hard to correct the mistakes that were in evidence in the Morgantown game and hopes to be able to beat Grafton, although he knows that his men will be up against a bunch that fights hard all the way for victory. The Ice-men Reserves will go to Monongah to-morrow where they will play the high school team of that place.

An announcement was made today of the officials for the East Side Fairmont game which will be played one week from Saturday. Johnson of Grafton will be the line-man, and the other two officials will be Lambie of Westminster and Briggs of the Springfield Y. M. C. A. Which one will referee and which one will umpire has not been decided yet. Both were named by the Central Board.

Tickets for the game to the number of 6,000 will go on sale Monday morning. All seats are reserved and it will be a case of first come first served. There is a great amount of interest in the battle, and a record crowd is sure to see the game.

GRAFT CHARGES MADE BY WORLD

'Partisan' Plan Declared to Have Been Undertaken at Columbia University.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Declaring it obtained its information from Joseph Daniels, former Secretary of the Navy and his son Jonathan, a student at Columbia University, the New York World today printed a story charging that Deputy Attorney General Gilbert had evolved a "partisan" plan to employ Republican students at the University as special deputies and investigators at the polls next Tuesday.

The young men would be paid at the rate of $10 a day out of a $100,000 fund authorized by the Legislature for ballot purging purposes, the World charges.

Young Daniels, according to the World, heard that some of his fellow students at Columbia law school were going to make some "easy money" at election time and inquired how he might do likewise. He was referred to Miss Edith E. Fairchild, secretary to Dean Stone of the law school, who, the World says, admitted she was making up such a list.

"But you're a Southerner, and they're all Democrats," Miss Fairchild said to young Daniels, as quoted in the World.

"Why, yes," he replied, and Miss Fairchild then told him it would do no good for him to apply. The young man told his father, who was in the city yesterday, what had occurred, and the elder Daniels informed the World.

Skull of Belgian Bicycle Star Probably Fractured

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—Alfredo Spiezzen, the Belgian six day bicycle star was taken to a hospital early today suffering from a possible skull fracture received when he went down in one of four spills which marked the furious riding caused by Willie Coburn of St. Louis and Dave Lands of New York trying to regain a lost lap and again break the leaders in the six-day race here. Spiezzen was unconscious thirty minutes and then seemed to be able to continue, but fainted again.

FIRST BOXES DELIVERED

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—The Washington navy yard has delivered to the Postoffice Department the first hundred of an order of approximately 10,000 letter boxes, marking the initial entry of a government establishment into the manufacture of ordinary boxes used on street corners for the reception of letters.

BLUE RIDGE THEATRE

ENTERTAINMENT VALUE

Admission 55c; Children 25c; Including Tax

Continuous 1:30 to 11:00. Vaudeville 3:30, 7 and 9 P. M.

THURSDAY, FRIDAY, SATURDAY

By Request

LORAY

The Girl Mental Marvel Yielding to Popular Demand Loray's Engagement Has Been Extended Three More Days

And THREE BIG KEITH ACTS

FEATURE PARAMOUNT PICTURE

ETHEL CLAYTON

In WEALTH

On Friday Each Woman That Attends Will Be Entitled to a Private Interview With Loray

FRECKLES AND HIS PALS

TAG MAKES HIS WEEKLY CALL ON A FRIENDLY NEIGHBOR WHERE HE USUALLY IS GIVEN A BIG PIECE OF CAKE—BUT TO-DAY IT ISN'T SO FORTHCOMING

AFTER WAITING 10 MINUTES

YES—I SEE

GEE, MISSUS WINKLER, I SWEET COCONUT CAKE

AIN'T IT FUNNY HOW I COULD SWEET SUCH A LITTLE PIECE OF CAKE?

A THINNER SLICE THAN USUAL

BY BLOSSER

Just to Argue.

Iowa defeated Yale by a score of 6 to 0. Iowa defeated Illinois by a score of 8 to 7 and Michigan beat Illinois 24 to 0. Those who insist on measuring the calibre of football eleven on the basis of comparative scores are handed the information if it has not already occurred to them, which it probably has.

No chain is stronger than its weakest link, and no team is stronger than its substitutes. That has been written previously but last Saturday Michigan started and

SOUNDS LIKE A HINT

BY BLOSSER

Just to Argue.

Iowa defeated Yale by a score of 6 to 0. Iowa defeated Illinois by a score of 8 to 7 and Michigan beat Illinois 24 to 0. Those who insist on measuring the calibre of football eleven on the basis of comparative scores are handed the information if it has not already occurred to them, which it probably has.

No chain is stronger than its weakest link, and no team is stronger than its substitutes. That has been written previously but last Saturday Michigan started and

Just to Argue.

Iowa defeated Yale by a score of 6 to 0. Iowa defeated Illinois by a score of 8 to 7 and Michigan beat Illinois 24 to 0. Those who insist on measuring the calibre of football eleven on the basis of comparative scores are handed the information if it has not already occurred to them, which it probably has.

No chain is stronger than its weakest link, and no team is stronger than its substitutes. That has been written previously but last Saturday Michigan started and

Just to Argue.

Iowa defeated Yale by a score of 6 to 0. Iowa defeated Illinois by a score of 8 to 7 and Michigan beat Illinois 24 to 0. Those who insist on measuring the calibre of football eleven on the basis of comparative scores are handed the information if it has not already occurred to them, which it probably has.

No chain is stronger than its weakest link, and no team is stronger than its substitutes. That has been written previously but last Saturday Michigan started and

Just to Argue.